

Names of winning enterprises

Senior Level

Main Student Enterprise Programme Awards
Award	Business	Student(s)	School
Winner	Slates by Tara: Handmade slate art for indoors and outdoors made with recycled 100-year-old Blue Bangor slates.	Tara McGuire	Presentation Secondary School
2nd Place	Nails by Ciara: Press on nails customised to the client's preferred design, shape and nail measurements.	Ciara McDonald	Presentation Secondary School
3rd Place	Confront Covid: Branded Covid-19 Masks designed to protect the local community.	Orlaith O'Shea, Emer Barron, Nathania Jackson	St Brigid's College
Category Awards
Green Business	Bí Nádúrtha: A range of natural body scrubs, lip scrubs, lip balms and scented candles in recyclable packaging.	Alison Bradish, Hollie Coogan, Cáit Scott, Aislin Comerford	Castlecomer Community School
Best Branding	Munch Mix: Dry mix for cookies and brownies with consistently branded packaging, labelling and advertising.	Alyson Shortall, Leslie Hughes, Alicia Brennan	Loreto Secondary School
One to Watch	Popping Basics: Ecommerce business selling clothing and accessories featuring Asian style cartoon/anime.	Moya Kehoe	Kilkenny College
Special Merit Awards
Best Business Pitch	Handy Sanitizer: Hand sanitizer with a clip to attach to handbags and belts etc.	Adam Walsh	Duiske College
Design-led Thinking	Multi-Stand Ltd: Handmade wooden stand designed to hold hurls, Christmas stockings, umbrellas etc.	Mark Ahern, Kevan Lynch	Coláiste Éamann Rís
Rising Star	Leon's Woodland Pencil Holders: Willow, hazel and ash pencil holders which are comfortable and easy to hold.	Leon Doyle	Kilkenny College

Entrepreneurial Spirit	JustParked: A disc that shows traffic wardens that you are availing of your free 15 minutes parking.	Adam Byrnes, Cian Sherwood	Castlecomer Community School
-------------------------------	---	-------------------------------	------------------------------------

Creative Business Idea Competition Award

Winner	Counting after Covid: Customised framed money box containing imagery to motivate you to save for the things you want to do after Covid such as going on trips, adventures and doing other activities.	Rachel Brennan	Loreto Secondary School
---------------	---	----------------	-------------------------------

Intermediate Level

My Entrepreneurial Journey Competition Award

Award Prize	Business Details	Student	School
Winner	Mark interviewed Anne Neary of Ryeland House Cookery School and also outlined his entrepreneurial journey having set up a business called 'Mark's Productions', making themed table centrepieces for different occasions.	Mark Srouji	Coláiste Éamann Rís

Junior Level

Main Student Enterprise Programme Award

Award Prize	Business Name	Student(s)	School
Winner	Parcel Trust: High-quality multi-functional secure outdoor storage boxes for online deliveries.	Noah Cahill, Ian McDonald, Thomas Deegan	Coláiste Éamann Rís

About the Student Enterprise Programme (studententerprise.ie)

The Student Enterprise Programme is co-ordinated by the Local Enterprise Offices and involves approximately 29,000 students from 500 secondary schools every year. It runs from September to May and the 20/2021 National Final takes place online on the 14th May.

Website: www.studententerprise.ie / #studententerprise / Twitter: @StudentEntProg / Facebook: /studententerpriseprogramme / Instagram: /studententerpriseprogramme